AND THE BEST PART WAS...

❗ What's exceeded my expectations has been the collaborative spirit in the classroom, fostered by the professor's expertise and guidance. In one class, Despite the intensity of some discussions, there's an atmosphere of mutual respect and a genuine eagerness to learn from one another. In one course, the professor skillfully guided the conversation, encouraging us to dissect the issue of voting rights, race, and the Supreme Court from various angles and engage in respectful debate. He brought in external research that was difficult to find in historical archives, enhancing our understanding of the subject matter."
