Lowell Teachers Scholarship

Lowell Teachers Scholarships enable middle and high school teachers in Boston-area schools to take one Extension School course per term (fall and spring) for half the published tuition rate. To apply for a Lowell Teachers Scholarship, send this form, signed by your school's principal, via email to studentfinance@extension.harvard.edu; upload via Document Management found in MyDCE, Main Menu (choose document type Student Financial Account). You must register online and pay the reduced tuition rate in order for your application to be reviewed. Scholarships are limited, so you should apply early in the registration period. Scholarships cannot be used for internships, practicum, independent studies, or master's theses or capstone projects, nor can they be combined with any other scholarship or used for January term or non-credit courses.
