What is the Lowell Student Scholarship?

The Lowell Student Scholarship is an academic scholarship offered by Harvard Extension School that gives select high school students the opportunity to enroll in (1) course (for undergraduate credit or noncredit) at the Extension School (no Management courses permitted) at a reduced tuition cost:

2023-24 Tuition Rate		What You Pay		What the Scholarship Covers
Undergraduate Credit* $2,040 per course	→	$1,020 (50% of course cost)	→	$1,020 (remaining 50% owed)
Non-Credit $1,500 per course	→	$750 (50% of course cost)	→	$750 (remaining 50% owed)

* - Undergraduate Credit: If you want to receive academic credit and grades (which will appear on a transcript), you must register for undergraduate credit. Not every course offers this option. Please consult the course description for your course of interest to see which credit options are available to register for.

 - Noncredit: As a noncredit student, you do not receive final grades or academic credit, but the course you take does appear on your transcript. Not every course offers this option. Please consult the course description for your course of interest to see which credit options are available to register for.

Who is eligible to apply for the scholarship?:

Students must meet all of the eligibility requirements below to apply for the spring 2024 scholarship. You will be ineligible to receive the scholarship if you do not meet all of these eligibility requirements.

- 15 years old at the time of account creation.
- Currently enrolled in a Boston-area high school for the 2023-24 academic year. Must be a current sophomore, junior, or senior (graduation years = 2024, 2025, and 2026).
- 3.0 or higher cumulative GPA in all coursework attempted at your high school.

What steps do I need to complete to be considered for the scholarship?:

Students who meet the eligibility requirements noted above – and who complete all of the action items noted below by January 2 – should expect to receive the Lowell Student Scholarship for the spring term.

1. Submit your online application here by Tuesday, January 2 at 11:59 p.m. eastern time. New students will be prompted to create login credentials. Returning students should use their existing credentials.
2. Review the course catalog here to determine your courses of interest.
3. Submit proof of English proficiency if English isn't your native language.
4. Complete the mandatory pre-registration process on the home page of your MyDCE account.
5. Add courses to your cart & submit your registration.
6. Submit 50% payment for your course (through your MyDCE account) by Tuesday, January 2 at 11:59 p.m. eastern time. Please ignore any payment reminders that you receive from Student Financial Services after January 2. A scholarship code will be added to your account on January 3-4 to cover the remaining balance owed for your course.
