Special Student Scholarship Application Instructions and Checklist for Harvard College Coursework, Academic Year 2024–25

Deadlines
FALLTERM 2024	SPRINGTERM 2025
June 1, 2024	November 1, 2024

Fund Information and Application Instructions

ALB candidates applying for Special Student status through Harvard College may apply for this scholarship, which pays tuition for one undergraduate course. The course must be applicable to your field of study at the Extension School and unavailable within the Extension School curriculum. Scholarship applicants must have a cumulative grade point average of 3.33 or higher. Award decisions are based on academic merit and financial need. To be considered for this scholarship you must submit the materials listed below to Student Financial Services by the appropriate deadline. The Special Student Scholarship is a very competitive and limited source of funding. You may apply for this scholarship in future terms; however, candidates who received the scholarship in one term will not automatically be chosen to receive it in another term.

Application Checklist

- The 2024–25 Special Student Scholarship Application completed and signed.
- The 2024–25 Free Application for Federal Student Aid (FAFSA) from the US Department of Education
Student Financial Services recommends that students submit their FAFSAs online at <https://studentaid.gov/h/apply-for-aid/fafsa> at least two weeks prior to the scholarship application deadline. Students may authorize the release of their FAFSA data to the Harvard Extension School by using our federal school code, E00209.
- A completed 2024–25 Application for Institutional Aid form, available in the MyDCE Portal on our website, extension.harvard.edu/login.

Student Financial Services may request additional documentation from you if necessary. Incomplete applications will not be considered.
