What is the Greater Boston High School (GBHS) Student Scholarship?
The GBHS Student Scholarship is an academic scholarship offered by Harvard Extension School that gives select high school students the opportunity to enroll in (1) course (for undergraduate credit or noncredit) at the Extension School (no Management courses permitted) at a reduced tuition cost:

2026-27 Tuition Rate	What You Pay	What the Scholarship Covers
Undergraduate Credit $2,260 per course	$1,130 (50% of course cost)	$1,130 (remaining 50% owed)
Non-Credit (No grade or credit issued) $1,660 per course	$830 (50% of course cost)	$830 (remaining 50% owed)

Who is eligible to apply for the scholarship?

Students must meet all the eligibility requirements below to apply for the Spring 2027 scholarship. You will be ineligible to receive the scholarship if you do not meet all of these eligibility requirements.

Please note: Meeting the eligibility criteria does not guarantee a scholarship award. Scholarships are awarded on a first-come, first-served basis, and funding is limited. To increase your chances of receiving a scholarship, submit all required materials as early as possible.

- At least 15 years old at the time of course registration (registration opens on 11/5/2026)
- Currently enrolled in a Boston-area high school for the 2026-27 academic year
- Must be a high school sophomore, junior, or senior at the start of the 2026-27 academic year
- 3.0 or higher cumulative GPA in all coursework attempted at your high school
